

Meeting and Study Room Alternatives

When the Library's study rooms are full, you may want to try one of the following:

- Coloft: 920 Santa Monica Blvd. coloft.com (310) 395-3366
- The Office: 256 26th St., #101. theofficeonline.com (310) 917-4455
- Working Village: 212 Marine St., #100. workingvillage.com (310) 450-7070
- Cross Campus: 820 Broadway. crosscamp.us (310) 395-3500
- Satellite Santa Monica: 3110 Main. thesatelliteinc.com (310) 452-4200
- ROC: 604 Arizona. realofficecenters.com (310) 450-7625

SMPL provides this list for your convenience and does not endorse any business.

For larger groups and events planned in advance, there are other options when the Library's rooms are occupied.

- Parks: Several Santa Monica parks have spaces for rent. Policies and a list with capacity, hours, and rates are linked from www.smgov.net/departments/ccs The Community Recreation Division can be reached at (310) 458-8300.
- Annenberg Community Beach House: Spaces are available to hold from 6 to 960 guests. Details at beachhouse.smgov.net/plan-your-event/event-spaces.aspx (310) 458-4904
- Los Angeles Public Library: All Westside LAPL branches have meeting rooms. Details are at www.lapl.org/facility-rentals/
- Regus: This company rents meeting rooms in a number of Westside office buildings by the hour, half-day, or day. regus.com (800) 633-4237
- Hotels: A list of Santa Monica hotels with meeting rooms is available from the Convention and Visitors Bureau at www.santamonica.com/meeting-professionals/where-to-meet/meeting-space/
- Santa Monica Place: The mall includes an event space. Details are at www.santamonicaplace.com/13 (310) 260-8300

SMPL provides this list for your convenience and does not endorse any business.