4) Library Boardmember Discussion Items
   a. Library Board and Friends collaborative efforts

   Rachel Ginnerty, Friends President, shared opportunities for community involvement, advocacy, and fundraising. The Friends Board is looking to recruit volunteers that bring added energy, providing a unique opportunity to donors to see a direct impact of their donations in library programs. Both the Library and Friends Board expressed interest in collaborating.

   The Library Board welcomed the opportunity to support recruitment efforts in the month of April during National Volunteer Week, asking each board member to reach out to their neighborhoods and contacts and help recruit volunteers for the Friends Board. Ginnerty agreed to review and update the board position descriptions. Staff will provide support and assist with marketing and preparation of website and flyer.

   b. Little Libraries Project Ad Hoc Committee update and discussion to explore National Library Week, April 23-29 to honor community libraries.

   Meister provided an update on efforts to write a blurb and survey that will be sent out in the month of April during National Library Week in an effort to recognize little libraries in the neighborhood. Those little libraries that complete survey will be invited to a future event where the Friends Bookstore welcomed a donation of its books to attendees with little libraries. Ginnerty and Kent shared ideas for how to proceed with donating books.

5) Public Input
   Member of the public, Mr. Coleman shared concerns regarding hours of operation and homelessness surrounding the Main Library.
Adjournment
