Citywide:

The City’s Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI) team will begin its efforts to identify priorities for its FY 2023-24 equity plan at the direction of Council. The team will gather input from staff and residents in the coming year. The DEI team is. The Library’s Equity Think Tank will work on aligning with the Citywide plan, as well as exploring policies and projects through a DEI lens.

Hispanic Heritage Month

Celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month beginning September 15 - October 15, 2023. Join the city at the discussion of Angie Cruz’s Dominicana, a “moving coming-of-age story centered on Ana Canción, a 15-year-old from a poor family in the Dominican Republic during the tumultuous 1960s... trying to navigate a new life that, at least at first, seems worlds away from the American Dream.” - Wednesday, October 11, from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. at Tongva Park. Discussion will be moderated by Teen Services librarian Gia Forsyth.

Kids can join in on the celebration by picking up a library Take & Make Kit and construct a quetzal bird out of paper and feathers. The quetzal is sacred to the Maya and Aztec peoples, and the symbol of Guatemala.

Santa Monica Public Library

Operations

On Saturday, September 2, the Main Library opened its doors as part of weekly Saturday service! Visitors have been enjoying evening hours until 8 p.m. at all library locations, Monday – Thursday.

Last month, library staff participated in an activity to reimagine the Main Library Café, led by Margaret Sullivan Studio. Staff had the opportunity to get creative and provide input for transforming the Café and Courtyard area into a space that reflects the community and promotes community connections.

Members from the Library Board and Friends of the Library Board also participated and showed their support, thank you!
Programming

September is Library Card Sign-Up Month

Libraries nationwide join the American Library Association (ALA) and work towards reaching out to families, caregivers, schools, and their communities to sign-up for library card in an effort to prepare children for the school year and have access to many of the library’s resources. Upon signing-up for a new library card, holders will be able to receive a $2 coupon to the Friends Bookstore.

The Library welcomes back more programs!

Baby Time! Babies from 0 – 17 months, along with their adult caregivers enjoyed a storytime filled with nursery rhymes, board books and songs, along with early literacy information. The program saw 45 attendees on its first day back.

LA Law Library returns with their monthly "Office Hours" program, providing referrals and assistance to patrons seeking information about the law. Resource Specialists are equipped to direct patrons to resources, such as free online legal forms, LA Law Library databases that can be accessed remotely, NOLO self-help legal books, and community legal clinics. They can also guide patrons on how to do research using the U.S. and California Code books in the SMPL Reference collection.

Local employment services nonprofit Chrysalis will be visiting Main and Pico one afternoon a month to provide patrons with drop-in resume reviews, job search tips, and information about their various job placement services. Their schedule will be:

- Main Library (lobby table): 1st Thursdays, 1:30 to 3:30pm / Pico Branch (study room 1): 3rd Thursdays, 3:00 to 5:00pm

Visit by Memory Care Unit. Adult Services welcomed and provided a tour of the library to a group of seniors and their caregivers (9 in total) from Brookdale Senior Residence in Santa Monica. They enjoyed a lunch in the Main Library courtyard and chose books from a cart provided by the Friends of the Library. Attendees were able to take a few books and expressed how much they enjoyed their visit.

Citizenship Classes at Pico Branch Library - had another pair of students pass their citizenship exam! Classes are taught by the Adult Education Center as part of SMMUSD. Classes help students complete and submit their U.S. citizenship applications and prepare them for their official interview. Classes are free and hosted by SMPL.
Introduction to Birdwatching

Last month, Library Board Member and Friends volunteer Lu Plazoules, and member of the Santa Monica Bay Audubon Society, gave an introduction on how to birdwatch. The talk had an enthusiastic audience of 55 of all ages – from families with babies to seniors truly enjoyed the experience, and was complimented with the new Bird Watching RED Kit that is now available for checkout.

September Calendar of Events

Safety and Security

In the month of August, the library experienced a total of 51 incidents. LSOs continue to see an influx of new people, with 46 out of 51 incidents observed to be unhoused individuals. A total of 10 acts of vandalism were reported on library property.

August 2023 - Data below only reflects incidents and not day-to-day rule violation interactions.

- 46 Incidents involving people who appear to be unhoused
- 29 incidents at main / 22 incidents at branches
- 6 calls in to police
- 11 active bans

Netwatch security monitoring which operates during non-operational hours detected 34 minor incidents.

Partnerships

Friends of the Santa Monica Public Library:

On Monday, September 11 the Friends of the Library Board celebrated and showed their appreciation to its Bookstore volunteers by bringing treats. Volunteers keep the Bookstore open and running by sorting and shelving books, selling books online and helping customers. In Fiscal Year 2022/2023 the Friends exceeded its fundraising goal to support Library programs. The grand success of this was due to the efforts of the Bookstore volunteers. Thank you!

Beginning on September 23 the Bookstore will open from 12 p.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturdays. The new Bookstore hours are Monday 12 p.m. to 3 p.m., Thursday 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. and Saturday 12 p.m. to 3 p.m.

Call to Order

Chair Meister called the meeting to order at 6:03 p.m.

Roll Call

The following persons were recorded in attendance by the Recording Secretary:
List in order called during the meeting.

Present: Chair Judith Meister, Boardmember Newman, Boardmember Lucien Plauzoles, and Boardmember Jason Lin sworn-in at 6:04 p.m.

Absent: Boardmember Laurel Schmidt

Also present: Erica Cuyugan, City Librarian, Priscilla Bouvet, Executive Admin. Assistant
1) Special Agenda Items
   a. Swearing-in and Oath of Office of new Library Boardmember Jason Lin

   Jason Lin was appointed to the Library Board by City Council, and took the oath of office and was sworn in.

   b. Presentation of the Library’s adopted budget as part of the FY2023-25 City Biennial Budget
      i. Erica Cuyugan, City Librarian

      Cuyugan reported back on the Council’s adoption of the City’s FY2023–25 Biennial Budget and gave an overview of the library’s funding. As previously reported, funding will allow continued restoration of services:
      - Expansion of evening hours (Monday – Thursday)
      - Saturday service at the Main Library on Saturday
      - Permanent and as-needed staffing, including custodial support and supply and expense support
      - Funding to implement Poet-Laureate Program

      Changes will go into effect in September 2023.

      Plauzoles inquired whether custodial support included an increase in staffing. Cuyugan clarified that it did not include permanent or as-needed custodial staff support, but services would be acquired through a 3rd party contractor the city uses. Public Works was one of the departments that experienced the largest budget reductions and has been unable to increase its staffing.
