

Library Policy

Library Filming

Commercial Filming and photography is not permitted within the Library. Non-commercial (private use) audio recording, filming and photography is prohibited without permission of Library Administration or supervisory staff. Such activity may not capture identifiable likenesses of individuals without their written permission. At governmental meetings open to the general public, these activities may occur and do not need approval. The Library may elect to photograph or film Library programs and/or events. The Library reserves the right to include these images in promotional materials. Attendance at Library programs and/or events constitutes consent to be photographed by Santa Monica Public Library publicity purposes.

January 16, 2014