

In accordance with city guidelines to help prevent the spread of COVID-19, the Santa Monica Public Library is closed from March 14 through Thursday, April 30, 2020.

During this time, all book returns are closed, due dates for borrowed materials will be automatically extended, no late fines will be assessed, and patrons can return materials when the Library reopens. Library cards will automatically be renewed.

Need to reach us while the Library is closed?

The following Library services will be available Monday through Friday from 10:00am – 4:00pm.

For answers to general questions, reference and research-related questions email reference@smgov.net or call (310) 458-8600.

We encourage you to use the Library's many digital services that are available 24/7 and include e-books, e-audiobooks, streaming movies and music, and digital newspapers and magazines.

The Library continues to update our webpage at smpl.org, or go to santamonica.gov/coronavirus.

Follow us on Twitter @SantaMonicaLibr, Facebook @smpublib and Instagram @santamonicalibr for updates.

Sign up for SMAAlerts.net to receive updates from the City of Santa Monica.

Note: This information is subject to change.

SANTA MONICA PUBLIC

LIBRARY